Hall Renovation Begins Today
Special Drive

As previously announced, the special 10 week drive to obtain funds for the total renovation of the church hall area begins this weekend and will conclude Easter Sunday.

Specially designated pink envelopes have been included with the regular mailings for these next ten weeks. Extra envelopes are available on the offering tables. As also indicated during last Sunday's presentation, pledge cards are available. If you choose to extend payment on your sacrificial pledge until December 1, 1974, we only ask that you so indicate this on a pledge card. The amount pledged and received during this ten week drive will determine how much of the renovation will be able to be completed during 1974.

Printed below is a brief descriptionof what is planned for each of the three phases of this extensive renovation project. Cost figures are estimates furnished by the architect, Mr. James P. Wong. All figures include demolition work, architectural, mechanical and electrical costs. Prices are based on assumption that all work will be bid and let in 1974. (The new basement entrance which is now under construction is a budgeted maintenance expense and consequently is not part of hall renovation itself.)

PHASE 1 - TOILET ROOMS & VESTIBULE

Includes renovations to stairs, organ compressor motor, toilet rooms, sump and pump, exhaust air system, ceiling and lighting, ceramic tile and wall finishes.

Est. Cost = $24,700.

PHASE 2 - KITCHEN & RECEIVING AREA

Includes demolition, patching, new walls, quarry tile floor in kitchen, new ceilings, resilient tile, wall finishes, make up and exhaust air system, plumbing as required, and electrical work; New stair and ramp at receiving area.

Est. Cost = $26,500.

All kitchen equipment & cupboards ..... = $21,900.

Est. Cost = $48,400.

PHASE 3 - DINING & ACTIVITY SPACE

Includes new entrance doors, hard floor finish, wainscoting and wall finishes, new baseboard radiation, mechanical ventilation system, new lighting and celing and miscellaneous patching and painting. Est. Cost = $38,600.

ADULT EDUCATION, LENT, 1974

Lenten study groups will meet once each during the weeks of March 3, 10, 17, 24, and 31, for 90 minutes of study plus coffee. The times suggested are 7:30 - 9:00 p.m. or 10:00 - 11:30 a.m. Each study group may meet in participants' homes or in the Center. Listed below are the topics you may elect. Each group will study one topic for five weeks. In addition to stating the topic of your choice, interested persons are asked to give other pertinent information to help us complete the organization of this project. Because the number and size of groups as well as location is dependent upon the number of participants and their preferences, we ask you to make a decision soon. Each study group will be led by either Fr. Harvey, Sr. Mary, Sr. Anne or Sr. Sheila.

TOPICS

1. PRAYER FROM WHERE WE ARE
   A treatment of the purpose of prayer and the various forms it may take: private, devotional, liturgical, formal, informal, combined with different kinds of prayer experiences.
2. OUR LIVING FAITH IN A CHANGING WORLD
   An opportunity to study and discuss the fact of contemporary doctrinal development and religious practice within the Church.
3. WHERE IS OUR GOD?
   To generate awareness in daily life of the God in whom Christians believe and whom they love, by seeing how common human experiences can point to him.
4. WHAT'S HAPPENING TO MORALITY?
   Examine what is good and exciting in the new emphasis in moral theology - a demand that will not make life "easier" but will require a deep and total personal relationship to Christ.
5. NORMAL/ABNORMAL
   Explore opinions/information on most talked about issues of the day - social, educational norms apparent in today's world.

JUST A WORD...

by Fr. Harvey

The positive comments relayed last weekend concerning the renovation of the church hall area were quite encouraging. With some pledges already received ahead of today's due date, our hopes of a successful drive begin to be more concrete. Printed elsewhere in this paper, is a brief description of the type of renovation planned for each of the three phases I tried to explain during all Masses last weekend. Our projected plans can become accomplished facts with your cooperation!

The annual statements were mailed early last week. They arrived in bulk late Monday morning at the rectory, and were sent out within 48 hours. There were a few harried hours during that time but we tried to compensate for the company's unfortunate delay in delivering them to us. (Statements do NOT include your contributions to Catholic Social Services or the D.S.A.)

May I bring to your attention once again the importance of using and CLEARLY MARKING your ENVELOPES for the sake of accuracy in accounting. We try to be as careful as possible and have made some adjustments in this area, but your assistance is our greatest service. If for some reason, your monthly envelope mailing is not received, please contact the secretary at the rectory and supplemental envelopes will be mailed to you pronto.

In spite of the wintry snow squalls this past week, I hope we can begin to look forward to the great season of Lent -- the Christian's springtime. A special feature of the Lenten season will be the choice of home discussions planned by the Education Commission with the Parish Council's support. A letter of explanation from Sr. Anne, our Religious Education Coordinator, was sent to all registered parishioners this past week. Your willingness to become a participant in these group discussions or to open your own home for a weekly Lenten meeting will be appreciated. Be sure to register now for this leisurely approach to continuing education in our faith.

ROSES ARE DUE...

... to Mr. Ted Weber for his continued work for the Service Commission. Ted is responsible for most of the gifts given for the Ypsi State Hospital Workers. He is consitent in routing out gifts, large or small, for men and women alike and has been responsible for collecting over 200 books to be used by various services in the county in helping children to read, or just to be given to the poor for enjoyment.

... to Alice Lonskey for the many lovely gifts toward the Ypsi Hospital workers box each month. Alice has been a constant donor of jewelry since we began.

... to the Meier family for their donation of a brand-new roaster for the kitchen. It has really come in handy for funeral dinners and for parish Sunday dinners.

... to Paul Tardiff whose quick thinking gained us 122 new and wrapped gifts to be used in our work with poor families and their children during the Christmas season. Much enjoyment was given others through his thoughtfulness.

... to Frank Wahla for the new Bingo signs gracing the Ballard and Hamilton corners, calling attention to the fact that Bingo is played at St. John's. Frank is in the midst of a few other inside signs for Parish Dinners, Bake Sales, Coffee and Donuts, etc. With such reminders scattered around, we should be in constant touch with happenings at St. John's.

... to the many who have responded to our monthly last Sunday food collection. We do not get an abundance to stock our shelves in comparison to the amount that is needed, but at least we have been able to help many people throughout each month who wouldn't have been helped without our storeroom. We have daily calls for help with families plights. Thank God you have been generous.

... to a parishioner who prefers to be nameless but who had a good month and decided to donate $200.00 to our work with the poor and whose generosity was overwhelmingly received by us and the people we were able to help.

Much goes on at St. John's that most take for granted. But thanks to the generous ones who remain aware of other's needs, we are able to keep up with our Christian endeavors both for the community and for the parishioners who are in need. ROSES TO YOU...

WHEN WAS THE LAST TIME YOU GAVE BLOOD?

Did you know that less than 3% of all people eliginle to donate blood do so? If this could be increased to only 4% there would be an adequate blood supply for the entire Detroit Metropolitan area, and we would never have to resort to paying donors for blood. This whole blood is used for transfusions and other surgical and clinical uses.

Most people do not even realize that many members of this parish are benefited by the donation of blood when the request is made by the Red Cross Blood Bank twice a year. Only when someone in the immediate family needs blood for a transfusion or when blood has been used and families are looking for donors to return the supply of blood used, do we think about the possibility that perhaps I should have given when the Blood Bank was in the area. What is more needed is people to donate regularly. Blood only has a shelf life of 21 days. If it isn't used within that time it must be discarded and more donors found.

A blood shortage could have a definite effect on our area where major hospitals are found, all of which are used by members of this parish and this community.

On February 25, a Blood Bank will be stationed at the Presbyterian Church on the corner of Washington and Emmet from 1:30 through 7:30 p.m. St. John's has a quota of 160 pints to give for this year. We always fall short of this mark, usually with about 38 pints, more or less. It might be good for us to begin thinking now of setting aside some time on Monday, February 25th, to be a volunteer in this much needed cause. It takes some time and effort twice a year to set aside time, but for a cause so needed, how can we refuse to take this into a Christian consideration.

LETTERS KINDLY RECEIVED

Dear Sister Carol and Service Commission,

We would sincerely like to thank you and your committee for the lovely anniversary celebration held on January 20, 1974.

Everything was very well planned and we had a most delightful time. Everyone was so friendly and gracious.

The Anniversary celebration is a great idea and I hope it will continue in our parish.

Sincerely,
Clara and Leonard Husse

Dear Fr. Harvey, Sister Carol, and members of the Service Commission,

I have been for months praying for an appropriate way to thank you, St. John's, for such wonderful, rewarding, never-to-be-forgotten memories our family shares of your most wonderful parish.

Little do we appreciate all the wonderful people and experiences until we leave and look back. I wish everyone had this opportunity so we could work a little harder, give more, and receive rewards even greater.

Needless to say, we surely miss your familiar faces in church. This feeble attempt to put into words cannot certainly repay you nor our thanks, nor our small donations. May we only find happiness here (in their new parish in Jackson) in following your fine example of giving of yourselves.

Love,
Dick, Shirley, and the Kuhl kids

Editor's note: A check was sent to the Service Commission from the family and the amount was used to update baby-sitting services.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The IFCC has been requested to supply volunteers to administer a questionnaire designed to determine the attitudes of welfare applicants regarding the services received from the Washtenaw County Department of Social Services. The volunteers should come away from this task with an increased awareness of both the problems of the poor in the county and of the degree of effectiveness with which the largest welfare agency meets these problems.

Volunteers will be required to contribute two or three blocks of time over a five-week period. Two blocks of three hours each will be spent administering the questionnaires at the Department of Social Services. This will take place during the four weeks beginning February 18, 1974. The third block of time will be devoted to a training session which a volunteer must attend. The volunteer can choose between two times for the training; the first Tuesday, February 12, at 2:00 p.m. or Wednesday, February 13, at 10:00 a.m. Both sessions will be held in the basement at Trinity Lutheran Church on Stadium Boulevard in Ann Arbor.

Please call in your name and phone number to Reverend Kenneth Colton at 662-4536 on Monday, February 11th. Please state that you are from St. John's Catholic Church in Ypsilanti.
